ADF Gap Year Program
Ms Clarke

The ADF Gap Year program provides an opportunity for young Australians, who have finished Yr 12 and are aged between 17 and 24, to experience military training and lifestyle whilst gaining new skills and pay over their Gap Year.

Gap Year opportunities are available in the Navy, Army and Air Force. The life skills and job training that you will acquire during your Gap Year experience will be valuable regardless of what career you ultimately undertake.

To find out more information and to register go to: www.defencejobs.gov.au/gapyear

Tutors Worldwide Gap Year Program
Ms Clarke

Tutors Worldwide handles the recruitment of gap tutors for a good number of schools in the UK. In 2015 they offered over 120 gap tutor placements in UK schools to Australian applicants.

Applications for 2016 are now open. For information regarding the recruiting program offered by Tutors Worldwide go to the organisations website www.tutorsworldwide.org. An information sheet is also available from Ms Clarke.

Closing Date: 9 April 2015

Changes to the Secondary Schools Tax File Number Program
Ms Clarke

Students can no longer get a Tax File Number (TFN) through the school.

The Australian Tax Office in partnership with Australia Post is making it easier for individuals to apply for a TFN.

Students can now apply online for TFN and have their identity verified through an interview at a participating Australia Post Office. More information on applying online can be found at www.ato.gov.au

ADF Careers Expo
Ms Clarke

The ADF are holding a Careers Expo at the Leeuwin Barracks, East Fremantle on Saturday 28th March, from 9am – 4pm.
ADFA 2016
Ms Clarke

Applications for The Australian Defence Force Academy (ADFA) 2016 are now open. Applying for ADFA is a competitive process, which takes 12 months or more, therefore it is recommended that students apply in Year 11. Students are able to apply anytime after their 16th birthday, with parental consent. Go to www.defencejobs.gov.au for more information and to download an application and begin the process.

Chinese New Year
Ms Griffin-Appadoo

Next week it will be the Chinese New Year and there will be quiz questions with prizes in the bulletin so find out as much as you can.

Get along to Northbridge at the weekend if you can as a one day street celebration takes place on Sunday 22nd February 2015 from 12pm to 9pm on James Street and Chinatown. There will be 100 stalls offering food, beverages, arts, crafts, services and a whole range of different products to reflect the wonderful diversity of Perth’s Asian community. The Chinese New Year Fair aims to promote Chinese culture by sharing the joy and festivities together with the wider community.

Lion dances are a familiar colourful sight during Chinese New Year, and there is no shortage of both lion and dragon dances at the fair. Other attractions include games, rides, water slides, street performances and entertainment, cultural activities, market stalls and a multicultural concert lined up in the evening from 7pm to 9pm at the Northbridge Piazza.

Lions Youth of the Year
Ms Nock

There is a meeting for all students who have entered this competition in Meeting Room A in the Administration Building at 1pm on Monday. A representative from the local Lions Club is coming to provide some tips and guidance and answer any questions. Please eat your lunch quickly before coming to the meeting.
