WADL Debating Ms Nock	WADL is running a series of seminars on debating on the weekend of 2 and 3 April. The Sunday sessions are at Shenton College, which is a convenient location. You can attend one or more of the seminars, depending on your level and needs. I strongly recommend anyone who is able to attend one or more of these sessions. If you are new to debating this year, this is highly recommended as it will really improve your confidence and help you understand how to approach debates. You need to register if you are attending. Check the website for this and for further information on what each seminar is about. http://www.wadl.org/competition/2015-development-day
