

Entries

Entries close at 5.30pm on Friday 2 May 2014.

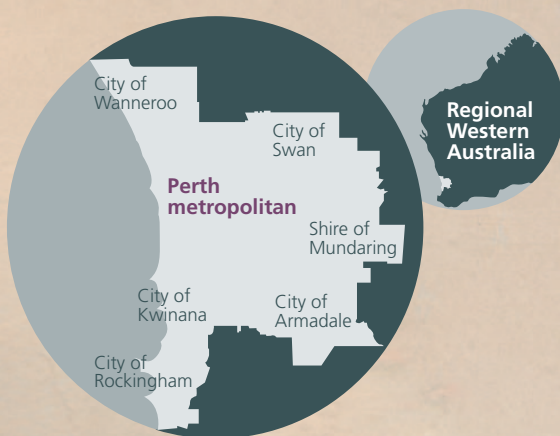

Entries will be judged on their originality, concept, technique and choice of materials used. The judges are looking for pieces that stand out for one or all of these things.

Please note: due to the high number of entries received for this award each year, individual feedback cannot be provided.

Entry check list:

- ☐ I am a Western Australian school student aged between five and eighteen years old.
- ☐ My entry is solely my own work.
- ☐ I have only submitted one entry (as only one per person will be accepted).
- ☐ My entry is two-dimensional. This can include drawing, painting, digital or mixed media works.
- ☐ My entry is no bigger than 1 x 1.5 metres in size. Mounting or framing is not required.
- ☐ My entry is accompanied by a completed entry form.

About Shaun

Shaun Tan is an acclaimed artist and writer who grew up in Perth.

Subiaco Library has two impressive murals by Shaun Tan on display. The Tea Party features a riotous array of strange characters and landscapes and The 100 Year Picnic is based on a photograph from the 1920s found in the archives of the Subiaco Museum.

Shaun began drawing and painting images in small-press magazines as a teenager, and has since become best known for illustrated books that deal with social, political and historical subjects through surreal, dream-like imagery. He has won numerous awards for his unusual and thought-provoking books, including The Red Tree, The Lost Thing, The Arrival and Tales from Outer Suburbia. Shaun's books have been translated into many languages and are enjoyed by readers of all ages.

In 2011, Shaun won an Academy Award for his short film, The Lost Thing, and received the Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award honouring his contribution to international children's literature. Shaun has also worked as a concept artist for the films Horton Hears a Who! and Pixar's WALL-E. Some of Shaun's stories have been adapted for the stage and he is currently working on lots of exciting new projects.

Calling all young artists

The City of Subiaco is proud to present the Shaun Tan Award for Young Artists. Now in its twelfth year, the award encourages imagination and innovation and provides a great opportunity to develop your skills in visual arts.

All school students aged between five and eighteen years in Western Australia are invited to submit an original drawing, painting or other two-dimensional (2D) creation, no bigger than 1m x 1.5 metres in size.

Entries will be judged on their originality, concept, technique and choice of materials used. The judges are looking for pieces that stand out for one or all of these things.

Entries close at 5pm on Friday 2 May.

Categories

Entries are judged individually in the following categories:

- A Lower primary – years one and two
- B Middle primary – years three and four
- C Upper primary – years five and six
- D Lower secondary – years seven, eight and nine
- E Upper secondary – years ten, eleven and twelve

Prizes and exhibition

Finalists will receive an invitation by mail to the award presentation ceremony in June. Awards will be presented at the Subiaco Library, and best-placed category finalists who live and study outside the Perth metropolitan area will receive travel and accommodation assistance to attend the ceremony.

All best-placed finalists will receive prizes from the City of Subiaco and award sponsors and the first prize winner in each category will have their artwork framed. The top ten entries from each category will be notified and exhibited at the Subiaco Library.

Finalists and details of the exhibition will be published on the city's website www.subiaco.wa.gov.au

Competition information

Public use of artworks

Entries may be photographed and used in City of Subiaco publications and for future promotion of the award. Artworks may also be displayed at Subiaco Library and other venues around the city. The title of the artwork and artist's name will always be acknowledged with the entry when it is used.

Insurance

Insurance is the responsibility of the entrant. Whilst all care is taken when storing and exhibiting works, the City of Subiaco accepts no responsibility for any damage that may inadvertently occur.

Collection of artworks

Entries must be collected from Subiaco Library between 1 July and 30 September.

Entries not collected during this period will become the property of the City of Subiaco, and due to storage restrictions may be destroyed.

Regional entries will be returned by post, provided the artwork fits inside a postage tube (66 centimetres long and 6 centimetres in diameter).

All framed finalists, regional or metropolitan will be required to collect their artwork from Subiaco Library.
