Toccata (from Symphony no. 5)
by C-M Widor (1844-1937)

First Reading

Words written about Jesus Christ by Mohandas K. Gandhi

Jesus Christ was certainly the highest example of one who wished to give everything, asking nothing in return, and not caring what creed might happen to be professed by the recipient. I am sure that were he living here now among us, he would bless the lives of many who perhaps have never even heard his name, if only their lives embodied the virtues of which he was a living example on earth; the virtues of loving one's neighbour as oneself and of doing good and charitable works among one's fellow men and women.

Second Reading

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes, Chapter 3, beginning at the first verse

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Thanks be to God

Third Reading

All stand

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew, Chapter 13, beginning at the 31st verse

Jesus put a parable before his followers:
"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field.
It is the smallest of seeds, but when it has grown it is the biggest shrub of all and becomes a tree so that the birds of the air come and seek shelter in its branches."

For the Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Hymn

Who would true valour see,
Let him come hither;
One here will constant be,
Come wind, come weather
There's no discouragement
Shall make him once relent
His first avowed intent
To be a pilgrim.

Whoso beset him round
With dismal stories
Do but themselves confound;
His strength the more is.
No lion can him fright,
He'll with a giant fight,
But he will have a right
To be a pilgrim.

Hobgoblin nor foul fiend
Can daunt his spirit,
He knows he at the end
Shall life inherit.
Then fancies fly away,
He'll fear not what men say,
He'll labor night and day
To be a pilgrim.

School Hymn

Lead us, O Lord, Your pure clear light
Shall guide our steps to set them a-right.
Though the darkness swirl around the one true way,
Your word shall lead us higher to meet the dawning day.

Joy sings, O Lord, in every heart
As friendship plays its God-given part.
May our friendship show the love that lives in You.
Make happy all fellowship working to make life strong and true.

Thank You, O Lord, for bright lives past
That prove Your love has power to last.
Steady may they shine in days when hope is low,
And kindle our courage to serve You with a fiery glow.

Come with us, Lord. Put out Your hand
To point the path, when doubt clouds the land.
"Deus dux. Doctrina lux" shall lead us clear.
Our lives shall share Your glory with You ever near.
