MEDIA STATEMENT: Andy Griffiths book launch at Christ Church Grammar School

One of Australia's most popular and acclaimed children's authors is launching his new book at Christ Church Grammar School later this month.

Hot on the heels of the Scribblers Festival, The 117-Storey Treehouse by Andy Griffiths will be released at Christ Church Grammar School to a crowd of more than 1200 students representing 24 different schools from across Western Australia.

Christ Church Grammar School Head of Library Services Ms Lia de Sousa said, "We are excited to be welcoming this great ambassador for reading and literature in youth."

"Andy has won over 50 children's literature choice awards, written over 20 books, and has had stories adapted into television cartoon series."

"At Christ Church, we continually inspire and nurture the love for reading and writing with our boys."

"Research shows that reading has a positive impact on educational outcomes and also student wellbeing - something we strongly embrace at the School."

The book launch will take place on Friday 26 July.
