MEDIA STATEMENT: Church student vying for top French prize

Christ Church Grammar School student Max Martin is on his way to the finals of the Alliance Française as one of the top students in Western Australia for French.

The Year 12 student's proficiency in French reading, writing and listening skills was recently put to the test at an examination held by Alliance Française.

"I was not surprised to see him included in the list of successful students as he has always strived to do his best in French," says Senior French Teacher at Christ Church, Mrs Linda Curlewis.

"Max has been learning French at Christ Church for the past six years and his work has always been a pleasure to assess."

"His latest examination essay was of a very high standard, full of idiomatic expressions, complex structures and subjunctives."

"Since 1911, the Alliance Française has provided French language students with a reliable and objective way to assess their level."

"We wish Max all the best as he competes against 20 other students for the top prize on 21 September."

The upcoming finals will determine rankings for 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes in the State and will be held at Alliance Française, Nedlands.
