MEDIA STATEMENT: Christ Church celebrates World Staff Day

Teachers and support staff at Christ Church Grammar School celebrated World Staff Day this week, acknowledging the daily contributions that sustain the School's ongoing success.

Through support from its volunteer-based Parents' Association, Christ Church has held the event since 2016 as a show of appreciation to its 320+ staff.

School Principal Alan Jones said, "We take pride in the talents of our teachers at Christ Church."

"The quality of their teaching makes all the difference to a child's educational outcomes and our support staff provide the essential backing to ensure the School operates successfully."

"Through World Staff Day, we are able to acknowledge the tremendous work all our wonderful staff contribute and the talents which they bring to their individual roles."

"It's also an opportunity for us to recognise those who have long served at the School, some exceeding over 25 years of continuous service."

The School initiative stems from World Teachers' Day, which aims to focus on appreciating, assessing and improving educators globally.
