

WA racing star Jordan Love is the 2019 Porsche PAYCE Carrera Cup winner.

Love conquers all at Carrera Cup competition

FORMER Christ Church Grammar School (CCGS) student and WA racing star Jordan Love has been named the 2019 Porsche PAYCE Carrera Cup championship winner.

The 20-year-old finished fifth in the 17-lap encounter, propelling him to this year's title.

Also competing in the event was Jordan's younger brother and current CCGS student Aaron Love, who finished just behind the overall series winner.

Jordan's latest wins include a trip to the Porsche Night of Champions Dinner in Germany, a trip to the Porsche Ice Experience in Finland and season entry for the 2020 Porsche PAYCE Carrera Cup Australia season.

"It's been an awesome journey and I can't put it into words how this feels right now," Jordan said. "I'm incredibly proud of the team and everyone that has helped me get to where we are today; it's been an awesome journey."