

Angus Sheldrick selected by the Sydney Swans in the first round of the AFL Draft

There was pure delight for Angus Sheldrick and his family when his name was read out in the first round of the 2021 AFL draft. The Christ Church Grammar School 2021 graduate was selected by the Sydney Swans with pick 18 in Wednesday night's draft.

Sheldrick was shocked while watching the announcement at home with his family "If you told me I was going to be a first-round draft pick this time last year, I would've been stunned" he said "I'm so pleased, I can't even put it into words."

Director of Sport Anthony Lynch says "Angus has worked extremely hard to improve and it's a credit to him and the coaches at the School that he has been able to become an elite athlete". "Over the last 12 months he has been remarkably consistent with his efforts playing PSA football with us, he has thrived and risen to meet the challenges on every occasion." The midfielder joins recent Old Boys Liam Henry (Fremantle) and Tim English (Western Bulldogs) in the AFL for season 2022.
