Christ Church Grammar School welcomes Mark Stone as Head of AFL

Christ Church Grammar School is pleased to announce the appointment of Mark Stone as the Head of AFL.

With a distinguished coaching career spanning over two decades, Mark brings a wealth of experience to this pivotal role.

His leadership has been instrumental in shaping successful teams at both AFL and state levels, including positions at the West Coast Eagles, Sydney Swans, Fremantle Dockers and most recently, the Brisbane Lions.

During his tenure as Strategy Coach with the Brisbane Lions, Mark played a crucial role in the team's journey to three finals, including the Grand Final last year.

Mark's career has encompassed four AFL Grand Finals including the West Coast Eagles' premiership win of 2006.

In 2019, Mark guided Glenelg to a long-awaited premiership as their Head Coach, breaking a 33-year drought and was named SANFL Coach of the Year.

Christ Church Grammar School Principal Alan Jones said Mark's appointment advanced the School's vision for the Australian Rules Football program and deliver on Marks three important goals: culture and environment, fit and available players and great style chemistry.

"Sport is not just a cocurricular activity at Christ Church Grammar School; it's an integral part of the Christ Church holistic education. Aussie rules is our national game and we are keen to ensure our students have the best guidance available."

"Mark brings a wealth of knowledge and success to our Sport Department, and we believe his appointment provides students with unparalleled opportunities to really understand the game as well as have the skills to play."

Christ Church Grammar School Head of Australian Rules Football Mark Stone said he was looking forward to working with students.

"I am truly honoured to join Christ Church, the School's commitment to excellence in both academics and sports aligns with my coaching philosophy, and I am eager to contribute to the culture of excellence."
