Building Good Men Leadership Breakfast 4 June 2025

Brian Leedman

Chairman of BlinkLab Limited

Brian is a seasoned investor relations and capital raising professional in the healthcare sector, with prior senior marketing roles at Ernst & Young and Westpac. He spent a decade as VP of Investor Relations at ASX/Nasdaq-listed Sivida Corp and has since founded six ASX-listed healthcare companies, serving in leadership roles including Chairman and Director. One of these, ResApp Health, was acquired by Pfizer in 2022 for $179 million. He currently chairs BlinkLab Limited (ASX:BB1), listed in April 2024. A former Chairman of AusBiotech (WA), he is also a guest lecturer at UWA, where he earned his BEcon and MBA.

Keegan Crage

Founder and Chairman of On My Feet

Keegan launched his first business at 17, became a Chartered Accountant at KPMG, led an international ASX-listed equipment rental group as CEO, and now owns a national IT services firm. He holds four postgraduate qualifications, has studied at Oxford and Harvard, and is currently completing a Master of Cyber Security at Oxford. A two-time triathlon World Championships representative for Australia, he founded On My Feet in 2014, a nonprofit helping people at risk of homelessness through running. In 2024, he published Homeless and Hopeful, sharing powerful stories of transformation from those who've rebuilt their lives through the program.

John Hartman

CEO of Tattarang and the Minderoo Foundation

John is CEO of Tattarang and the Minderoo Foundation. Formerly Chief Investment Officer since 2012, he now leads Tattarang—one of Australia's largest private investment groups with over $30 billion in assets across sectors including agri-food, energy, resources, property, and health-tech. He chairs Wyloo and R.M. Williams and is a Director of Squadron Energy. At Minderoo Foundation, Australia's largest philanthropy, he advances its mission to build a fairer future and protect natural ecosystems, combining commercial acumen with purpose-driven investment.

Kelli MacMillan

Clinical Psychologist and researcher

Dr Kelli MacMillan is a Clinical Psychologist, academic, and researcher based at Murdoch University and King Edward Memorial Hospital. Her research addresses key community issues with a strong focus on real-world impact both nationally and internationally. A former lawyer and investment banker in Perth and London, she brings a diverse career perspective and values the opportunities that come with embracing unconventional paths.

Andrew Sugiaputra

Managing Director of Golden Group

Andrew is Managing Director of Golden Group, leading project acquisitions and overseeing all phases of real estate development, from analysis and planning to construction, marketing, and leasing. He led the acquisition of Belmont Racecourse and secured a lease agreement with Synergy, WA's state-owned energy provider. He holds an Honours degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Western Australia.

Mark Clark

Chairman of Capricorn Metals

Mark is Chairman of Capricorn Metals and has over 30 years' experience in public gold mining companies. After starting his career at KPMG, he joined Equigold NL in 1995, marking the beginning of his journey in the gold sector. As Managing Director of Regis Resources (2009–2018), he oversaw the development of three WA gold mines producing over 300,000 ounces annually. Since 2019, he has led Capricorn Metals, which operates a mine in the Pilbara and is set to begin construction of another in the Murchison. He holds a Bachelor of Business from Curtin University.
