WORKING RELATIONSHIPS:

The Humanities Department has 18 staff members.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- This position requires a committed educator to join a team that supports innovative classroom practice and engages with boys in relation to their individual learning requirements. Knowledge and skills in delivering Politics and Law ATAR in Year 11 and 12 and the Humanities and Social Sciences in Years 7 to 10 would be highly regarded.
- Apply pedagogy that is appropriate to the diverse abilities and talents and the multi-cultural backgrounds of students
- Contribute positively and collaboratively to the development of the Humanities curriculum and the collegiality of the Humanities Department
- An interest in, and commitment to, the innovative use of information, communications and other technologies in curriculum delivery
- An ability to contribute to the co-curricular programs of the School

---

TEACHING DUTIES:

- Politics and Law and Humanities classes equivalent to 0.87 FTE teaching time.

CO-CURRICULAR:

All Teachers are involved in some co-curricular activity commensurate and prorated according to their contract teaching load, and as a consequence, join other Teachers and possibly other members of the school community in activities which will embrace associated professional obligations e.g., collegial support and administrative meetings. The School will consult with a Teacher with respect to the nature of their participation in the co-curricular offerings of the School. Where possible the particular skills and interests of the Teacher will be taken into consideration in the allocation of their co-curricular commitment, balanced against the School's need to adequately staff the activities on offer.

EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

This position requires:

- Relevant tertiary teaching qualifications and experience related to the teaching of Humanities and Social Sciences, particularly the Politics and Law content.
- All applicants must be eligible to teach in Western Australia, have a National Police Certificate and have completed a Working with Children Check.
