Building Good Men Awards – Term 2 Week 8

Class	Name	Awarded for
6FT	Charles Xu	Charles is recognised for his commitment to improving his learning and the progress he has made throughout the year. It has been wonderful to see his confidence and enthusiasm continue to develop, particularly through his growing love of reading. Charles has also been contributing more thoughtfully to class discussions, sharing his ideas and engaging positively with others. Super work.
6FT	George Browne-Cooper	George always strives to do his best and approaches every challenge with determination and a positive attitude. He manages his time effectively and should be congratulated on delivering an excellent Speakers' Challenge speech. George is also a caring and thoughtful friend who consistently looks out for others and demonstrates kindness in his interactions. Keep up the wonderful work, George!
6FT	Sam Etheridge	Sam consistently works to the best of his ability and approaches every task with dedication and determination. He is always willing to help others and demonstrates kindness and respect in all that he does, making him an outstanding role model for his peers. Sam should also be congratulated on the confident and well-prepared presentation of his Speakers' Challenge speech. Well done, Sam!
6JJ	Ethan Lee	Congratulations, Ethan, on a terrific period of work. You are focused in class, heed advice, and are always motivated to try your best. It is lovely to see you solidify these important work habits and grow into a mature and pro-active learner. Well done. Keep it up!
6JJ	Raphael Martinick	Thank you, Raphael, for all you bring to 6JJ. Your calm, sensible, and kind nature is an asset to our whole class. Your resilience and maturity is truly impressive and you are a great influence on your peers. It is lovely to watch you grow into a mature and capable student. Keep it up.
6JJ	Harrison Spehr	Well done, Harrison, on a terrific period of work. You are consistently prepared to learn, organised, sensible, and kind to your peers. We appreciate your calm nature and the intrinsic motivation you bring to your studies. Keep it up.
6MS	Elijah Tan	Elijah is to be commended for consistently working to the best of his ability, striving to reach his potential each day. His entertaining Speakers' Challenge speech about "Brothers" was excellent and was written with a great balance of humour and facts that kept us engaged.
6MS	Henry Mitchelmore	Henry, you consistently work hard across all subject areas. It has been very pleasing to see you take home your books and revise your subjects ahead of tests. You should be proud of your mature outlook towards your studies and the way you have been willing to help others in the class.
6MS	Tobias Peate	Tobias, you are commended for having a positive attitude to your learning, trying to do your best and working well with your peers. I was impressed to see you persist with solving the maths questions about the average temperature and rainfall in our 'data and graphing' lesson. Additionally, it is wonderful to see you offer to help your friends in class when they need a hand with something.
6RB	Coen Hardcastle	It has been a pleasure to see Coen excel in his role as Karda House Captain this term. He has gone from strength to strength and this growth has extended into other areas of school life. His efforts and commitment are highly commendable. Excellent work, Coen.
